CARL, REPUDIATED, SEEKS AN EXILE IN SWITZERLAND

Former Hapsburg Emperor Is Rejected
By Parliament and Leaves
Hungary.

Vienna, April 2. — Officially repudiated by both Hungary and Austria, Carl, former emperor, was on his way back to Switzerland today, his dream of a return to the Hapsburg throne definitely ended.

Within 24 hours his status had changed from that of a potential king to that of a courtless jester.

Under a Spanish safe conduct and in virtual custody of two British army officers, Carl left Steinmanger for the Swiss border yesterday on a special train. Elaborate preparations were made to guard the train as it passed through Austrian cities.

The Austrian Parliament by unanimous vote declared for continuation of the republic as against restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty.

Dispatches from Budapest said the Hungarian National Assembly adopted a resolution expressing confidence in the regent, Admiral Horthy, and saying return of Carl would constitute a great national danger.

Conflicting reports were received as to whether Carl had signed a formal statement of abdication before his departure. One dispatch from Budapest said he merely consented to go either to Switzerland or Spain. Other advices said he had signed repudiation of his monarchistic ambitions.

EXPERT MECHANIC TO OPEN REPAIR SHOP.

Mr. Roe Stephens, for years expert mechanic on the C. & O. Railroad, has recently built a repair shop on East Second street at the foot of Bank adjoining the Skating Rink, and in a few days will begin work. The plant has been named "The Composite Mechanic Shop" and it will be just what the name implies. Mr. Stephens will do all kinds of repair work and his past reputation as an expert assures the public of the best service possible.

Corporal Cleon Drisel, who has been stationed at Camp Dix, N. J., has received an honorable discharge from the U. S. Army and has returned to his home here.

REVIVAL CLOSES WITH 52 ADDITIONS TO CHURCH

Most Successful Revival in Half Century at Baptist Church was Closed Friday Evening.

The Baptist revival came to a close Friday night with another very large audience to hear Dr. John Vines' last sermon. He spoke to the subject "God Is Good" and the sermon was one of the best of the series. There were five additions to the church yesterday bringing the total during the meeting to 52, the largest number that has been received into this church in a revival in a half century.

The people of Maysville generally have greatly enjoyed this special series of services. The evangelist, Dr. Vines, and the singer, Mr. McKinley have made lasting impressions on Maysville and their stay here has been profitable to all those who took advantage of the opportunities.

Pastors and members of the other evangelical churches in Maysville were very kind during the meetings and gave their hearty co-operation throughout. Those who missed Dr. Vines' masterful sermons and Mr. McKinley's sweet songs have certainly missed something worth while.

RETURNED MISSIONARY SPEAKS.

Dr. W. W. Stout, of Louisville, returned Missionary from China, spoke at the Baptist church last night in the interest of the China Famine fund. Mr. Stout also spoke yesterday at Mayslick. Mason county is making a liberal contribution to the relief of these starving people.

SEAT SALE FOR MINSTREL SHOW HAS OPENED.

The seat sale for the Red Men's Minstrel for the benefit of the City Mission, has opened at Shafer & Watkins' Paint Store and seats are now being reserved. The sale is progressing quite satisfactorily and it appears that a neat sum will be made for the poor of the city through this entertainment.

M. H. S. MANUAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT QUITE BUSY.

The Manual Training department of the Maysville High School is quite busy just now making mirror frames for the George James Fruit Store and they are also busy working on screen door and window orders.

MRS. SULSER DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF ONLY A FEW DAYS

Brilliant Woman Succumbs to Stroke Of Apoplexy—Nursed Confederate Soldiers in Civil War and Was Loyal to the "Lost Cause."

Mrs. Anna Porter Harrison Sulser, widow of the late George W. Sulser, died at her home in Limestone street this morning at 9 o'clock after an illness of only a few days. At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon she was stricken with apoplexy and never regained consciousness or suffered pain during the whole of her illness.

Mrs. Sulser was born at Lynchburg, Va., on October 17th, 1840, the daughter of Jesse Burton Harrison and Frances Brand. She was a most brilliant woman and one of the most ardent supporters of the Southern Confederacy during the Civil strife. During this conflict she and her mother operated the Confederate Military Hospital at Oxford, Miss., and her brother, Burton N. Harrison, was private secretary to Jefferson Davis the president of the Confederate States.

Mrs. Sulser has been a resident of Maysville for nearly fifty years. She was the organizer and one of the charter members of the Maysville Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy and a greatly beloved woman. She was a devoted Christian and loyal to the Presbyterian church, of which she was long a member.

The funeral will be held from the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with services by the pastor, Dr. John Barbour. The six surviving Confederate veterans living in Mason county will be her pallbearers. Three children: Miss Ethel and Messrs. Harry and A. Gordon Sulser, as well as three step children, Mrs. W. T. Smith, Mrs. Watt Baldwin and Mr. Charles Sulser, survive. Burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

WEDNESDAY SELECTED FOR UNVEILING OF PORTRAIT

Portrait of Aaron Houghton Corwin To Be Unveiled at Public Library Wednesday at 4 O'Clock.

Arrangements were completed today for the unveiling of the portrait of Aaron Houghton Corwin, famed artist, born and reared in Mason county, at the Public Library next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Maysville Boys' Band will furnish music and the ceremonies will be held on the front porch of the library building in Sutton street. There will be addresses by Mayor Thomas M. Russell and Mr. George H. Frank and Mrs. Clarence Wood will give a sketch of the life of the famous Masonian who was born and reared on Jersey Ridge in this county and received his first training in art in Maysville.

It is expected that there will be a large number of Maysville and Mason county people present at the unveiling.

MAYSVILLE MEN'S ORCHARD IS HIGHLY PRAISED.

Ohio State Horticulturist Moore with Mr. Peter Bolander, prominent nurseryman of Ohio, recently visited the Maysville Fruit & Land Company's orchard in Lewis county near St. Paul and Mr. Moore writes the local company that they have the best prospect for an orchard he has ever seen in his life. Many acres are planted in fruit trees.

MANY PURE-BRED EGGS BEING DISTRIBUTED HERE

Mason County Rhode Island Red Club Distributes More Than 100 Settings of Pure Bred Eggs.

The people of Mason county have accepted the proposition of the Mason County Rhode Island Red Club for setting pure bred eggs this year and it now seems that the county will have quite a number of new pure bred flocks this spring.

Some few weeks ago the County Red Club offered to give away one hundred settings of pure bred Rhode Island Red eggs to those persons who would promise to return to the club a faultless pullet for sale at a big poultry show to be held in the summer. There were more than 136 applications in response to this proposition and the club raised the number of settings to 150 and it is certain this number will be accepted.

Distribution of these eggs is being made today at the Farm Bureau office. They are going into all parts of Mason county and will help more than anything to spread the standardization plan of poultry breeding in Mason county.

These visitors will also say a word for the starving Chinese in their short address.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered to a class of 37 at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening following the evening worship. Those received into the membership of the church during the recent revival will be welcomed by the church membership.

"Squire John Cochran, of the county, left this morning for Rochester, Minn., where he will enter the Mayo Sanatorium to undergo a serious surgical operation.

MASON LEADS STATE IN TRANSPORTATION OF SCHOOL STUDENTS

State Superintendent Colvin, In Advising Consolidation, Shows Mason County Heads Entire State.

Frankfort, Ky., April 2. — Public transportation for the 25 consolidated schools in this state for the year just closed totals $51,636.15. Mason county leads all of the counties in the state in this advanced method of getting children to school, paying $17,579.42 for transporting children to its six consolidated schools.

Fayette county is second on the list, expending $9,312.68 for its six consolidated schools. Grant county is close to Fayette in the expenditure of money, as it required $8,683.56 to pay transportation for its two schools. Franklin county has two consolidated schools and the transportation cost $5,851.04. The cost in the other counties graduate from $2,610.85 in Garrard county to $186.08 in Jessamine county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin addressed a letter to the county school superintendents showing the many advantages of the consolidated schools. In his letter Mr. Colvin says:

"To carry on the manifold activities of the rural school of the new order may seem impossible in one-teacher schools. The best solution proposed is to consolidate several schools into one, and where distances are thus greatly lengthened, transportation wagons may be furnished to convey children to and from schools.

POSITIVELY NO MORE TOBACCO SALES.

It has been reported that there might be other special sales held at local tobacco warehouses if enough tobacco was delivered by growers to warrant such a sale but President Jones and Secretary Rains, of the Maysville Tobacco Association, this afternoon stated that there would positively be no other sales this year on this market.

WHO KNOWS W. B. HILL?

Sheriff Charles Galbreath has received a telegram from Monroe, Louisiana, stating that a W. B. Hill, who was born in 1850, had died in that city and asking that Hill's Mason county relatives be notified. No trace of a former resident by that name can be found.

MAYSVILLE MEN ON RIPLEY BALL TEAM

Neighbor Town Plans Schedule of Strong Teams for Approaching Baseball Season.

Ripley, Ohio. — The local baseball managers, Maddox & Shroth, have been busy the past week with the preliminary arrangements for the approaching season. Some players have been signed and negotiations are in progress with others. The playing field will be the same as last year, on Lawrence Mann's place. Work on preparing the grounds will begin next week, weather permitting. It seems probable at this writing that the opening game will be on Sunday, April 10.

Among other players secured, the management announces the signing of John Lewis Thies, the big righthand pitcher, who was with the Cincinnati Reds a short time last season.

The line-up will be made up from the following players and probably two others who may sign up later:

Lee Dressel, Oral Thompson, Harry Dice, Raymond Klinker, "Red" Huffman, Orville Fitch, Geo. Grassinger, John Lewis Thies, Oscar Fitch, Charles Innis, Louis Klinker.

The management expects to book only fast teams and preserve good order.

Walter Thomas, formerly with McIlvain, Knox & Diener, will reopen the repair shop of the late John O'Mahoney in Traxel's alley, where he will do packing, repairing and moving of furniture.

GREAT CROWD SEES BIG FEATURE, "PASSION."

The Washington theater was crowded last night with people anxious to see the big feature picture, "Passion," and everyone was greatly pleased. This wonderful picture is built around facts of French history and is beautifully staged. The projection of the film was faultless. Mr. Evan Davidson, the Washington's operator, has developed into an expert.

DAVIS—MORGAN.

Mr. Charles A. Morgan, aged 21, and Miss Lucille Davis, aged 17, both of this city were granted a marriage license here today. They will be married today by Rev. John Mullen, pastor of the Christian church.

AUTO TAKES FIRE.

Mr. H. W. Cole's automobile while standing on Second street near Court took fire last night but the fire was soon extinguished. It is thought that crossed electric wires caused the blaze.

GRANT CENTENNIAL IS BEING PLANNED FOR GEORGETOWN

Georgetown, Ohio, Plans Great Celebration on One Hundredth Anniversary of U. S. Grant.

The Georgetown (Ohio) News-Democrat says:

April 27, 1922, will mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of Ulysses S. Grant, at Point Pleasant, Ohio. Although this distinguished American was born at Point Pleasant, Georgetown is regarded as the real home of Grant, the family having come here when Ulysses was eighteen months old. Plans now in the making will center on a great centennial celebration here in 1922 under the auspices of the Grant memorial commission of Ohio, and the American Legion.

Georgetown retains several landmarks with which the name of the soldier and statesman is identified. Here is his boyhood home and a building that was his father's tannery. The house in which he went to school has been appropriately marked and there are several other spots of historic interest in connection with Grant's life.

Visitors to Georgetown find sentimental interest in the buildings and recall his words: "The home to which my day dreams carried me back as a future home, should I ever be able to retire on a competency."

Sadly enough, the dream never came true. The home he loved was built by the Grants soon after they came to Georgetown in 1823. Deeds on record in the county court house show that the building site was acknowledged before Thomas L. Hamer, then a justice of the peace and later a general in the war with Mexico. It was his command that raised the American flag over Monterey.

Ulysses' parents, Jesse and Hannah Simpson Grant, built a substantial home of brick in what was Main street in earlier days, but which now bears the honored name of Grant avenue. Most pioneer homes were built of hewed logs, but the Grants were of the sturdy type and had saved enough money to make their home of brick. The result of good workmanship is well reflected in the splendid state of preservation evident today. The house has been enlarged on two or three occasions to meet the demands of the tenants, but the original Grant walls all are there.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

THE MYSTERY OF LIFE.

Death is spoken of as the great mystery. Life is a far greater mystery. Death is negative, like cold, like darkness—the mere absence of life.

Life is individual and separate in its manifestations. In the vast universe of microscopic life each form is distinct, a unit of energy, living in its own sphere and moving in its own orbit. Billions of bacteria move about in a drop of water, and not one organism can be confounded with another or become anything but what it is. Each one of these minute existences terminates its life-history in the same way—by death.

Nor is life spontaneously generated from dead matter. Life alone produces life. The scientists have suggested that the life of our planet came from some other planet, but they have never adopted the theory that it sprang from inert, unorganic substances.

The first forms of life on earth, scientists tell us, were creatures of a single cell. Later organisms more complex appeared, and at last plants and animals containing millions of cells were developed. Yet each new life today, begins its existence with a single cell, recapitulating the history of life from its ancient beginnings.

Life as we are familiar with it can only exist within very narrow limits and under rigidly definite conditions. A slight change in the composition of the atmosphere; the approach of the earth a degree nearer the sun, or a similar recession from it; the slowing down of the globe in its revolutions; a change in the elliptic; a deflection of the ocean currents would wipe out whole realms of life, and even depopulate the planet.

As one evolutionary epoch succeeded another, and when the conditions were at last favorable, man appeared, akin to the animal creation below him, yet infinitely superior. The gulf which stretches between the first manifestation of animal life and the highest of the animals below man, is an invisible line in comparison to the abyss which stretches between man and the chimpanzee.

The lower animals show no initiative, no power of invention, no sign of progress, no evidence of spirituality.

But man has covered the earth with the monuments of his genius and the mile-posts of his progress. He photographs, weighs, measures and analyzes the heavenly bodies. He flashes his thought around the world on the ether waves. He flies in the air, swims under the sea, annihilates the continents and bridges the oceans.

Man is not separated from the brute so much by reason of any physical differences, even in the structure of the brain. The chemical elements, the cellular mass and the convolutions of the human brain cannot account for man's kingship.

Something has been added. Man has personality. He is a soul having a body. He shapes his brain, fits it for a definite purpose, modifies and develops it, molding a particular mass of brain cells for each special kind of knowledge.

Man is more than an organism. He is an individual, a free, independent, purposeful being, having affections, reason, memory, imagination, conscience and will, knowing right from wrong, with a sense of responsibility and the instinct of worship.

Hence there is, and has always been, in man an ineradicable conviction of personal immortality.

"If there were no other life," says a great philosopher, "God would not be honorable." In creation this "pleasing hope, this fond desire," was planted deep in the constitution of our being. "I shall live forever," said Job. "I shall live forever," said Socrates. "I shall live forever," said Paul. All poets and thinkers, all common men who have looked upon the calm, mysterious sleep of the beloved dead, have felt that "it is not all of life to live, nor all of death to die."

THINK OF IT, AMERICA NINTH IN EDUCATION.

The announcement has just been made of the rank of the different countries in the world as to education. The United States stands NINTH. This country, which we all claim to be so great, so rich, so much better than all others, is ninth among the nations when it comes to the education of its people.

The news is astounding, stupefying! And yet three years ago, when we entered the war, twenty-five per cent. of the men who went out from a single state to fight the nation's battles had to be taught to sign their names. And, mind you, they were not foreigners—every one of these illiterate soldiers was an American born citizen. Many more who could with difficulty write their name and read a bit were so poorly educated that they could not study the common manual of drill.

Yes, education is free in our rich cities and in well-to-do country regions. But the time has come for us to carry education—common-school education—into the mountains and deserts and other lonely stretches of our land.

Ignorance is the greatest menace of any nation. We rail at Bolshevism in America and denounce its followers among us, but forget that it is nothing but ignorance, lack of education. And that is our fault, not theirs.

DEO GRACIAS.

Give the devil his due. Japan is about the only country of the Old World that has not come to our shores, hat in hand, and asked us to feed its "starving" population.

LANSING PLAYS LEAGUE
IN HIS PARIS DIARY

Instrument of Mighty to Enthrall the Weaker Nations, He Says
For First Time.

Washington, D. C., —Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, until dismissed by President Wilson for calling meetings of the cabinet when his chief was physically unable to do so, has given his honest opinion of the peace treaty and league of nations covenant as recorded in his diary in Paris and just published. He says:

"The terms of peace were yesterday delivered to the German plenipotentiaries, and for the first time in these days of feverish rush of preparation there is time to consider the treaty as a complete document.

"The impression made by it is one of disappointment, of regret and of depression. The terms of peace appear immeasurably harsh and humiliating, while many of them seem to me impossible of performance.

"The league of nations created by the treaty is relied upon to preserve the artificial structure which has been erected by compromise of the conflicting interests of the Great Powers and to prevent the germination of the seeds of war which are sown in so many articles and which under normal conditions would soon bear fruit. The league might as well attempt to prevent the growth of plant life in a tropical jungle. War will come sooner or later.

"It must be admitted in honesty that the league is an instrumentality of the mighty to check the normal growth of national power and national aspirations among those who have been rendered impotent by defeat. Examine the treaty and you will find peoples delivered against their will into the hands of those whom they hate, while their economic resources are torn from them and given to others. Resentment and bitterness, if not desperation, are bound to be the consequences of such provisions. It may be years before these oppressed peoples are able to throw off the yoke but as sure as day follows night the time will come when they will make the effort.

"This war was fought by the United States to destroy forever the conditions which produced it. Those conditions have not been destroyed. They have been supplanted by other conditions equally productive of hatred, jealousy and suspicion. In place of the Triple Alliance and the Entente has arisen the Quintuple Alliance which is to rule the world. The victors in this war intend to impose their combined will upon the vanquished and to subordinate all interests to their own.

"It is true that to please the aroused public opinion of mankind and to respond to the idealism of the moralist they have surrounded the new alliance with a halo and called it 'the league of nations,' but whatever it may be called or however it may be disguised it is an alliance of the Five Great Military Powers.

"It is useless to close our eyes to the fact that the power to compel obedience by the exercise of the united strength of the five is the fundamental principle of the league. Justice is secondary. Might is primary.

"The league as now constituted will be the prey of greed and intrigue; and the law of unanimity of the council, which may offer a restraint, will be broken or render the organization powerless. It is called upon to stamp as just what is unjust.

"We have a treaty of peace, but it will not bring permanent peace because it is founded upon the shifting sands of self-interest.

"The obnoxious things in the treaty were due to secret diplomacy. The President should have stuck rigidly to his principles, which he has not."

Before Naming Your Executor

Think carefully of the disadvantages of naming an individual to act in that capacity. He is subject to every human misfortune, and your interests in his charge are imperiled accordingly. He may be inexperienced; he may prove incompetent or dishonest; he may be burdened with other duties; he may be absent when his presence is most needed; he may meet with an accident, become ill or mentally unbalanced; he will surely die, possibly soon.

This bank is better fitted to act as your executor than any individual. It performs its duties with intelligence, economy and fidelity because it is absolutely unbiased by any personal considerations and does its work with the combined training, ability and honesty of a number of men of proven character and successful business experience, and is surrounded by the strongest legal safeguards. We will gladly discuss with you the preparation of your will, no matter what the size of your estate.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York — "New York has been converted—if it ever had strayed from the church," says "Big Bill" Edwards, Collector of Internal Revenue. "Pretty nearly every income tax return that we have yet glimpsed, mentions under 'contributions,' '$1 a week to church.' Now a dollar a week may not be the expected tenth, but considering everything, it generally means serious interest in the church these days. And if a man's income tax return is not to be taken seriously, what is?"

Every once in a while something happens to justify the intriguing interest that hangs about the words, "little East Side cafe." And this time it's something real, indeed. For in an obscure "little East Side cafe," patronized by Italian workmen, has been discovered the famous Francisca Madonna, stolen from the National Art Gallery in Bologna two years ago. The cafe proprietor, like most Italians, has an appreciation of art. When this painting was offered him last year by a hungry, penniless immigrant, as security for food and lodging, he realized it was of unusual value, although he didn't connect it with the missing masterpiece. Word of its presence in the cafe spread through the Italian colony and reached the ears of Captain Piero Tozzi, war hero and artist, spending the winter here. He made the acquaintance of the cafe proprietor and arranged the purchase of the Madonna. It will be restored to the Bologna gallery this spring.

Memories of old Spain are brought vividly to mind by the costumes being created along Fifth avenue for spring and summer wear. This is shown by the unprecedented amount of fringe and beads being used in everything from the street to evening gowns. Miss Dorothy Dickson, one of New York's best known stage celebrities, forecasted the fashion when she appeared at

EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Maysville Citizen Will Interest You.

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back?
In the "small" right over the hips?
That's the home of backache.
If it's caused by weak kidneys.
Use Doan's Kidney Pills.
Maysville people testify to their worth. Read a case of it:
Mrs. R. L. Mattingly, 207 West Second street, Maysville, says: "I was in a bad condition with my back and kidneys. I couldn't get my proper rest at night owing to the dull misery in my back. I was feeling so miserable I often had to let my housework go undone. I was dizzy by spells and also suffered from rheumatic pains. I have been so bad that I couldn't walk without pushing a chair in front of me and my lower limbs were very painful. My kidneys were in a bad condition owing to their irregular action. My mother had used Doan's Kidney Pills successfully and that led me to send to Wood & Son's Drug Store and get a couple boxes. After using them I was all right. I have felt well since using Doan's and recommend them gladly."

Because she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Mich.—"I was not feeling well for several years and never was able to eat any breakfast and always complained of a headache or tired feeling which at times required me to stop my work and rest. I have never had a physician and never took any medicine for it until yours was recommended to me by a neighbor whom I used to visit frequently. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am in the best of health and enjoy doing my work every moment of the day. It surely put life and 'pep' into my system."—Mrs. L. M. an entertainment given by the Junior League in an ultra-Spanish effect created by Peggy Hoyt, who has since been swamped with demands for similar frocks. So keen is the interest among the smart women of New York in the Spanish type of gown that the Fifth avenue dressmakers are finding it almost impossible to secure an adequate supply of the fringe and beads necessary to carry out the effect. In addition, hats with the Spanish keynote are beginning to be seen and it seems quite likely that even the fandango will be revived as a popular dance this summer.

Under the experienced sounding title of "Husbands and Wives," the youngest playwright extant is to send forth a play under the skilled producing hand of George M. Cohan. Offhand, it would seem that Harold Statton, aged eighteen, would not know a great deal about the complicated problems of husbands and wives; but remembering what has happened to other plays by other authors when they got into the well-known George's grasp, it may be that a line or two describing the scenery attracted the producer and he knew that he could supply or divert anything which youth had failed to touch with expert hand.

Probably the Hudson has the Hellspont considerably beat on width at that; sufficiently to make up for the cup of coffee handed G. Washington Taylor midstream in the act of proving his ice and his prowess. Lillian Tibbets is the dusky ladylove of the equally dusky G. Washington, and when she declared, one evening in her parlor in the Bronx, that her hand and her love would go to whichever of her two suitors first swam the Hudson river, the tall, athletic G. W. went down to the shore and waited for a balmy day. A large and excited group of spectators watched him swim from the other side while his rival's friends used telescopes to see that he didn't touch the boat from which he was given the cup of coffee, half way across. But the roar of applause meant nothing to G. Washington Taylor, whose only words were, "Lilly, where are you?" when he touched the Jersey shore. "Heah!" cried Lilly and threw herself into his dripping embrace.

In spite of differences, there seems some faint echo of that story in the news that Miss Alice H. Lord, Olympic high diver, of Brooklyn, has announced her engagement to Richmond W. London, of Salisbury, Mass., high jump champion of the world. Both young people were among the 300 American athletes who sailed last July to take part in the Olympic games. Young London is still at Yale university and Miss Lord is studying at the Sargent Dramatic School.

COSTS TWO MILLION DOLLARS TO COLLECT TAX
Business Expert Shows That Present Federal Tax Systems Are Entirely Wrong.

In discussing business conditions for March, Roger W. Babson, president of the largest organization of business advisors in the world, issues the following statement:
During March the Babson Business Index dropped from 108 to 98. This makes a total decline of 132 from the high point, 230 reached in January, 1920.

In my opinion this March showing is largely accounted for by our present system of taxation.

The bank clearings, building permits, and other figures now coming out for the first two weeks of March indicate that the time and energy which 5,000,000 of our people have given to preparing these reports resulted in a loss of about $1,000,000,000 in sales, $550,000,000 in manufacturing, and $500,000,000 in other lines. If we add to this the time of bookkeepers, accountants, government tax officials, collectors, and inspectors, we have a far greater loss.

Some will say "But think of the $4,000,000,000 the government will be able to spend this year." This is where we are all being fooled. If the amking out of these returns did not cost one cent, the country would not be any better off. The whole process is simply "robbing Peter to pay Paul" and the "robbing" costs the American people about $2,000,000,000 a year. I, of course, do not criticize the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and his staff. They have handled a most difficult problem in an efficient and impartial manner.

The American people, however, should not fool themselves as to the terrific cost of our present tax system in wasted money, lost time, and retarded prosperity.

The United States, though rapidly killing off its fur-bearing animals, imports annually as many furs as it produces.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON. APRIL 3, 1921.

Topic: The Ideal Christian, or The Christian Living With Others, Matt. 12:12-13.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

The twelfth chapter of Romans from which this lesson is taken should be committed to memory in childhood. It should be deeply engrained on all minds. It is full of instruction, just such as we all need. The high standard of Christian living here held up appeals to every man. It is approved by all. But men say "we are not able to live that kind of life, and is true that without the enabling grace of God men fail. In the opening words of the chapter the apostle Paul who wrote the lesson, gives the key to the situation when he says: "I beseech" by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God. Paul here teaches that the mind must be renewed by the transforming power of God. This radical change must be wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit before men do or prove the will of God. We are exhorted in this lesson to be free from hypocrisy, abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. A number of duties are enjoined in our intercourse with others in order to perform which requires a changed heart. O, that men would understand that before they can live the Christ life they must have the Christ spirit. There is no such thing as living a Christian life till we have first been made Christians.

We are here exhorted to avoid conformity to the world, on the contrary we are to be transformed. When this is done the rest is comparatively easy. Until this is done your efforts at living a real Christian life will result in failure.

The apostle appeals to men "by the mercies of God" that they seek this transformation. What are the mercies of God? They are the great provision He has made through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world. The wonderful provisions having been made at such an enormous cost should appeal to every man, and if he refuse to seek and obtain this transformation, his failure to live up to those precepts is his own fault. The Christian life is an exemplification of man's transformed state. By such a life the world is convinced of sin and of holiness, and Christ is made manifest to the world. One of the precepts is "love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you." "Avenge not yourselves." Without the transforming grace of God these things are impossible. We cannot be Christians without Christ. We cannot keep the law of God until we are born again. Let those who have been trying to live holy lives, and have been failures, as so many are doing, go to the fountain of cleansing, get a clean heart through faith in Jesus Christ, and then come back to their task and they will have victory and joy in His service.

Miss Harriett Rains, of Riverview, with her guest, Miss Mary Kavanaugh, of Covington, are visiting friends in Lexington for a few days.

LARGE TIMBER TRACTS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Adams County, Ohio, Is Visited By Forest Fires Which Did Much Damage.

West Union, Ohio. — Considerable timber was destroyed in Jefferson township the past week by forest fires which started from sparks from a burning barn in the McJones farm, near Wamsley.

It is not known how the blaze originated on the McJones place. Floyd McJones, a son of the landlord, and Charles Thoroman, tenant on the place, had just walked through the big barn, and happening to look back after going a short distance, were surprised to see flames bursting from the building. The two men hurried back and succeeded in getting a team of work horses out of the barn and to a place of safety. They were unable to get anything else out, as the flames spread rapidly to every part of the building.

Considerable feed was consumed with the barn, and Mr. Thoroman lost practically all of his farm machinery and tools. He had but recently moved his family to the farm from the Seaman neighborhood.

The high wind carried blazing pieces of light material from the burning barn to points one mile away.

ROAD BUILDING TO FURNISH WORK.

Washington, April 2. — More than 300,000 unemployed will find work next year on road building projects if states and counties push projects already approved, officials of the Department of Agriculture estimated today. The total cost of road projects awaiting completion is $622,000,000. Estimating 60 per cent. of the cost of road building is a labor charge, H. D. Fairbanks, of the Department of Agriculture, pointed out this would provide employment for 300,000 men
